

Cambodia Hosted the 6th ASEAN Seaport Interdiction Task Force

Cambodia by National Authority for Combating Drugs (NACD) hosted the 6th ASEAN Seaport Interdiction Task Force on 10 November 2021 via video conference. The meeting was chaired by Police General Mak Chito, Deputy Secretary General of NACD and was attended by ASEAN Member States and a representative of ASEAN Secretariat. The meeting exchanged information on illicit drug situation and seizures via international seaports and waterway in ASEAN Member States. The meeting discussed the measures to enhance the cooperation on drug law enforcement at the seaports among ASEAN Member States. The priority was given to the increase of capacity building of drug law enforcement officers via online training. The meeting agreed to exchange real time information through WhatsApp application. Indonesia offered to be the next host of ASITF Meeting in 2022.

Pol. Gen. Mak Chito, Deputy Secretary-General of NACD chaired the meeting

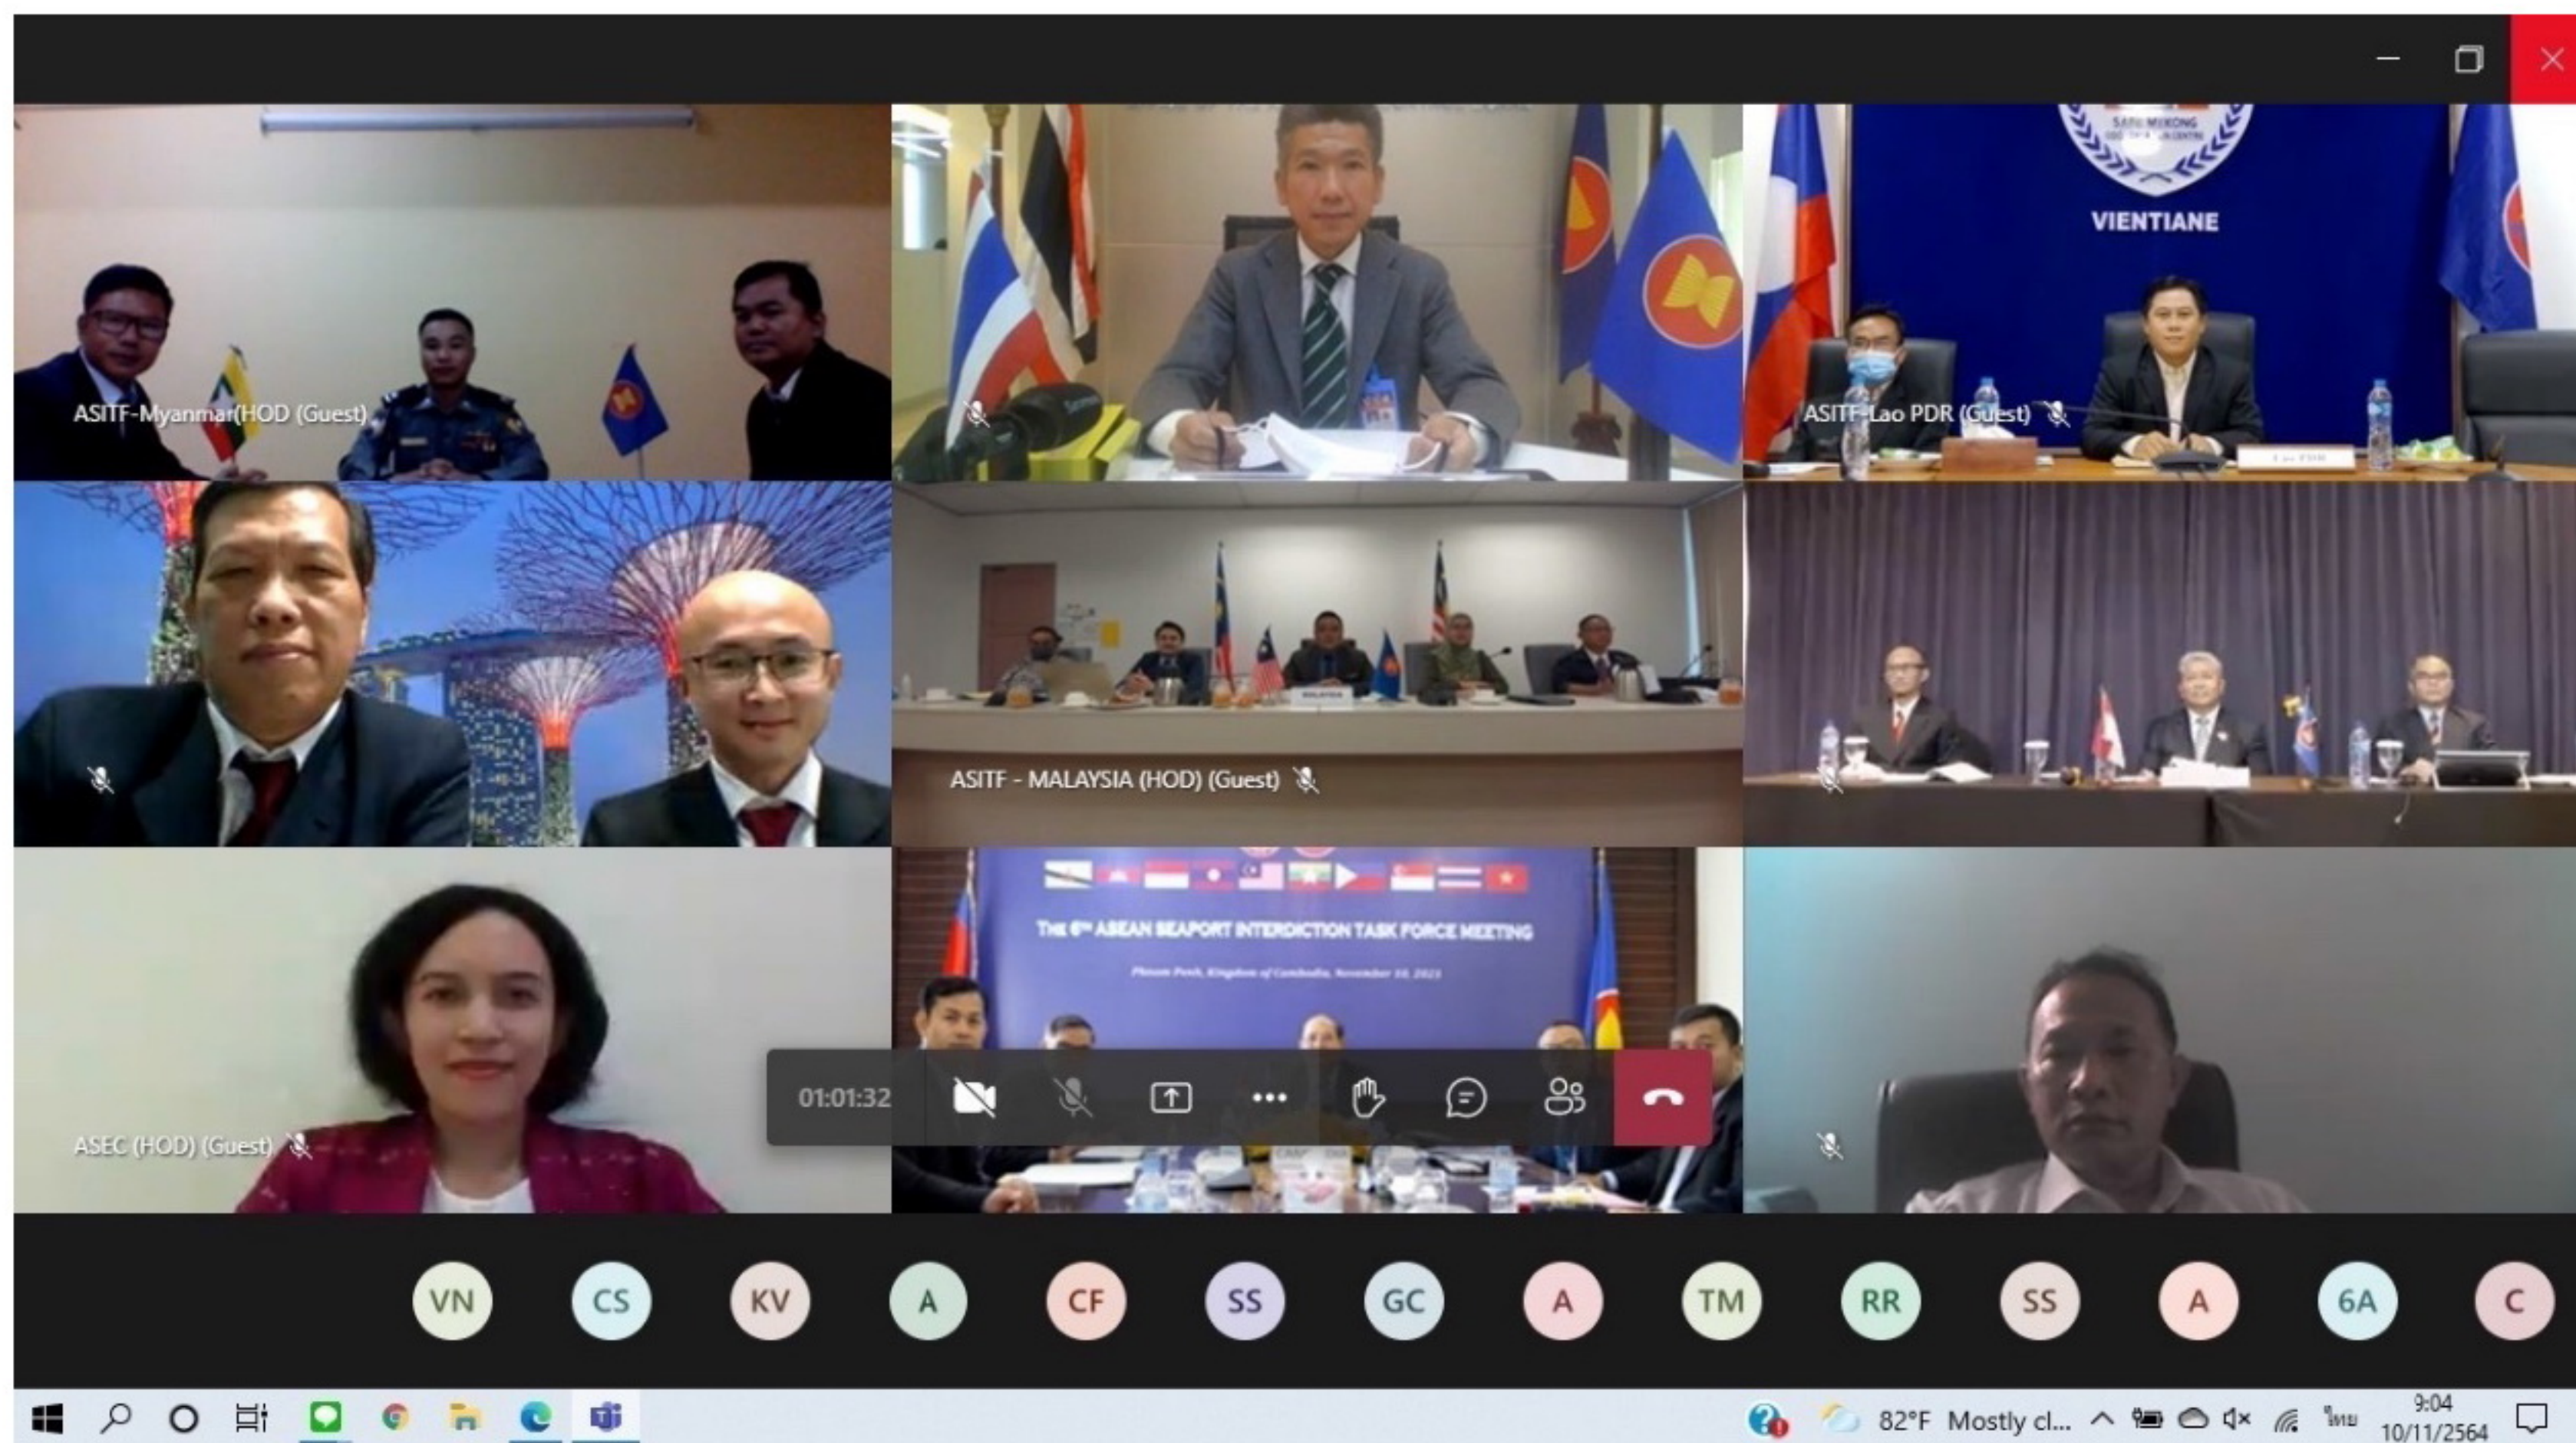

Photo Credit : National Authority for Combating Drugs